

CABELL BRAND HOPE AWARD NOMINATION FORM

Cabell Brand — founder of TAP, which is celebrating 57 years of service — was a tireless advocate for a wide spectrum of issues. He generously gave his time and efforts to enhance the quality of life for individuals, families, and communities. To honor his legacy of service, TAP is proud to announce The Cabell Brand Hope Award. The deadline for applications is August 4, 2023.

CRITERIA

Nominees must:

- Have an extended interest in anti-poverty efforts, literacy (education), or the environment
- Volunteer in their community and show a long-term dedication over time
- Exemplify one or more of the following characteristics: grassroots community changer, risk taker, champion for the cause, persistent, relentless, challenger of the status quo, change leader
- Reside in: Alleghany County, Bath County, Botetourt County, Craig County, Roanoke City, Roanoke County, Rockbridge County, Buena Vista, Covington, Lexington, Vinton, Salem, or another southwest Virginia community.

HOW TO SUBMIT A NOMINATION

Please fill out the information below and attach a one-page biography of the nominee. A photograph will be required of the person selected for the award. Send form and bio via email to robin.reynolds@tapintothehope.org. You may also submit the nomination online at tapintothehope.org/hopeaward.

Your name _____

Your address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone number _____ Email address _____

In a separate document, please provide a one-page essay on why you think this person should receive the Cabell Brand Hope Award.

Nominee's name _____

Nominee's address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Nominee's phone number _____ Nominee's email address _____

QUESTIONS

If you have any questions, please call Robin Reynolds at 540-283-4866.